

WATER / WASTEWATER SEMINAR

Hosted at
Environmental Resources Training Center & Biotechnology
Laboratory Incubator Lab Southern Illinois University -
Edwardsville

Friday, September 20, 2024

Continuing education credit hours will be offered, exact number will be announced closer to the event.

- 8:30-9:00 Registration, coffee/bagels and welcome
- 9:00-10:00 - Local researchers will present work focused on algal blooms, environment sustainability, and emerging pollutants. Speakers include Katie Kohoutek, American Water and Professors Kevin Tucker, SIUE, and Anshesh Borthakur, SLU
- 10:20-11:20 -Discussions covering new PFAS Regulations and use of TOC-L to automate TKN & BOD. Speakers include Ruth Marfil-Vega, Sr. Market Manager-Environmental, Shimadzu and Keith Long, Elemental Spectroscopy Product Lead, Shimadzu
- 11:30-12:30 - Lunch
- 12:30-2:45 - Tour of ERTC and instrument demos including TOC-L, Ion Chromatography, GCMS, LC, LCMS, UV-Vis, Mald
- 2:45-4:00 - Talks include Process Control Sampling, Nutrient Removal, Nitrification in Drinking Water, and wrap-up. Speakers include Dave McMillan, Training Specialist, IRWA, Jim Winslade, ERTC Staff, SIUE, and Matthew Maas, ERTC Director, SIUE

Parking, shuttle service, registration, catered lunch are provided at no cost for registered participants.

Scan the QR code to register for this free event.

Please register by 9/12

The full agenda, parking maps/driving instructions, and number of approved continuing education credits will be shared closer to the event. If you have questions, please contact Christy Bagwill, csbagwill@shimadzu.com or Matt Maas, mmaas@siue.edu.

Event Sponsors:

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
EDWARDSVILLE

